What can we do for you?: FYI-New Men's pro minor league basketball team coming to Louisville Ohio... their first professional sports team ever...

The Louisville Patriots: In addition to providing a full-fledged scale of sports entertainment each game... As stated Single Tickets will only be $3, or two for $5...?Fans will be given free programs, free in game giveaways, free family halftime entertainment, free post game autographs and photographs from the players, and each game at halftime - two $50 school supply scholarship checks will be given to 2 Louisville high school students selected that week? In addition the organization will be giving back to the community through free basketball clinics, free player school and group talks, and donated improvement of basketball courts at our community parks. Just an FYI towards tip off in early 2020. Sincerely, Marc Cook. 210-760-4043
